WHAT IS TENEBRAE?

The word 'tenebrae' refers to darkness. Tenebrae is the traditional nocturnal office of psalms and readings prayed during the Triduum. A hearse of candles is lit (a singular triangular candelabra of 15 candles), each of which is extinguished one by one at the end of each of 14 psalms. The readings each day in the first Nocturne are from the Lamentations of Jeremiah; the second Nocturne from St. Augustine; the third Nocturne from St. Paul. Monsignor Pierre Batiffol writes: "And then came the 'triduum,' the last three ferias of the Holy Week, and the office assumes the amplitude which characterizes the most solemn anniversaries." (History of the Roman Breviary, 1912. p. 92). It is believed that the Roman Office of the Triduum is so ancient, that it "already existed in Rome in the sixth century in much the same state as now" (ibid. fn.3, p. 92). Traditionally, Masses have been celebrated in the daytime and Tenebrae at night: "The office commenced at midnight...At the night office of Maundy Thursday, celebrated at S. John Lateran, the basilica was lit up as usual: but on Good Friday, when the office was sung at Holy Cross in Jerusalem, all the lights were extinguished one after another, so that at the end of the Benedictus only one remained alight, which was then hid behind the altar until the next day...in token that the Light of the world was extinguished, Christ being dead, and that darkness was upon the face of the whole earth. The night office of Easter Eve was celebrated in the dark, only one lamp being suffered to be lit for the reader" (p. 93). In 1955, the Holy Week services were reformed, and Tenebrae switched places with the Masses and services at the altar which had previously been celebrated in the daytime. We will celebrate Tenebrae at 8 am during the Triduum. Thursday, Friday, and Saturday morning will be the full Latin office lasting approx two and a half hours on Holy Thursday and Good Friday; and two hours on Holy Saturday. Booklets to follow along in Latin/English will be provided.

FAST AND ABSTINENCE LAWS AND DISCIPLINES

The current law of the Church obliges those age 14 and over to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent. Those age 18 through 59 are also obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting is defined as one full meal and two other meals which, when combined are less than a full meal. Recommended: 2 oz in AM; 8 oz in PM.

The former practice and discipline in place in 1962 obliged those age 7 and over to full abstinence from meat on all Fridays of the year, Ash Wednesday, Holy Saturday, and the Vigil of Christmas (Christmas Eve).

Likewise, formerly, partial abstinence (meat permitted once a day at the principle meal): all the days of Lent, the Ember Days of Wednesday and Saturday, and the Vigils of Pentecost and the Assumption.

The former law for fasting applied to those age 21 through 59. Fasting was to be done on all days of Lent (except Sundays) from Ash Wednesday inclusive, Ember Days, and the Vigils of Christmas, Pentecost and the Assumption.

THE PASCHAL BLESSINGS OF FOOD: (EASTER BASKETS)

The Roman Ritual includes various blessings for Easter which represent the foods (or foods containing festive ingredients) that the faithful traditionally abstained from during the 40 days of Lent: lamb, eggs, bread, new produce, any victual, and oil. Parishioners and guests are welcome to bring your Easter Baskets with these items to be blessed on Easter Sunday morning.

NINE TUESDAYS OF ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA

Beginning Tuesday of Holy Week, April 15th and concluding Pentecost Tuesday, June 10th. The Feast of St. Anthony falls this year on Ember Friday, June 13th. Many favors have been obtained by those who have made this Novena. Look up the playlist for the Nine Tuesdays of St. Anthony for archived weekly videos on the parish YouTube channel. Here are the rules:

- 1) Recite for nine consecutive Tuesdays the prayer or prayers you find most appropriate (provided in the church and on the website)
- 2) Endeavor to imitate his virtues.
- 3) Receive within the period of the Novena, if possible, the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.
- 4) Promise alms for St. Anthony's Bread for the poor, if you have the means.

MOTHERS PRAYER AND PLAY GROUP: Friday, April 25th

All mothers welcome, "new" moms especially encouraged. There will be no public Mass on Friday, April 25th so the event will begin in Carmody Hall at 9 am and last until 11 am. Future listings will be under Weekly Parish Activities.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY DEVOTIONS

Sunday, April 27th at 2 pm in the church. We will pray the Divine Mercy chaplet for the gaining of the plenary indulgence.

THE LEGION OF MARY AND THE VISITATION OF HOMES

Though not its initial venture, the visitation of the homes has been traditionally the preferred work of the Legion, its special occupation everywhere and its avenue of greatest good. It is a characteristic of the Legion. Through this visitation, personal contact can be made with a great many people and the Church's concern for every person and every family can be shown. The legionary visitation will be marked by humility and simplicity. People may have incorrect ideas concerning the visitation, expecting to be lectured in a superior way. On the contrary, legionaries should aim initially at listening instead of talking. Having listened patiently and respectfully, they will have won the right to be heard. (Legio Mariae Handbook, p. 232-233).

Join the Legion of Mary. The Gate of Heaven Praesidium meets each Thursday in Carmody Hall from 7-8:30 pm. Visitors are welcome.

No Legion of Mary meeting during Holy Week. Join us Thurs 4/24.
