FROM THE DESK OF FR ERIC ANDERSEN

So many new families have registered at St. Stephen's over the past few months. Still, I do believe that we can accommodate all of our parishioners to attend every weekend and we certainly have lots of room at every daily Mass. The difficulty is that everyone understandably wants to attend Mass on Sunday morning; and that is not possible. We have four Masses between Saturday evening and Sunday evening. If families are willing to attend any of these 4 Masses through the weekend, then I hope everyone should be able to get in.

I am disheartened when people get upset at me or the office staff because they cannot attend the Mass of their choice. We should all be grateful to be able to attend Mass. There are places in the US where people are still not allowed to gather indoors for Mass at all.

Every week, we have room at the Saturday 6 pm English Mass; and we have room at the Sunday 6 pm Latin Mass. Please consider attending Vespers followed by Mass on either of these nights as a way of sanctifying the LORD's day. Also, there is often room in the chapel for families.
