THE FEAST OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

We conclude our novena to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel with two Masses: a Low Latin Mass at 12 Noon; and a Sung Latin Mass at 7 pm this coming Thursday, July 16th. Please bring a brown scapular to be blessed and enrolled at either Mass.

A WORD FROM THE SUMMER SEMINARIAN:

In this Sunday's epistle, St. Paul offers us a timely reminder of our identity as Christians. He writes, "Brethren: All we who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death." However, we should not fear death, for St. Paul continues, "If we have been united with Him in the likeness of His death, we shall be so in the likeness of His resurrection also." Because of our hope in the Resurrection, we should not live with broken spirits, but "alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord." Our world is dragging itself deeper into the ravages of sin and death. So what? Yes, we must pray and do penance for those who do not see the error of their ways, but we should never despair, for that is exactly what the devil wants; he diverts our attention away from God and on temporal things. Let us never lose hope in the Resurrection and always keep Our Lord's Sacred Heart in our gaze.

SUNG LAUDS AND VESPERS

FROM THE DESK OF FR ERIC ANDERSEN, PASTOR

In these days of summer: when everything is calm and lovely in the parish garden, and the liturgies and the church are beautiful; it is hard to believe that anything is amiss in the world around us. That is the way it should be. The Church should be a place of love, security, peace and concord in the midst of a troubled world. Christian families and homes should be this way too. If all families and homes were this way, there would be no reason for the rage that is washing over our land and our cities.

We can never hope that the world will be without sin; therefore there can never be true peace on this earth. We can work towards it in ourselves and our families but unless man turns back to GOD, civilization will always be in a state of conflict and disorder. What can we do? We need to fast and do penance; pray and avoid sin. We need to get right with GOD first or we will never get right with our neighbor. I encourage you to consider participate in "Let Freedom Ring: 40 Days to Freedom from the Devil" at <https://usgraceforce.com>.
