FROM THE DESK OF FR ERIC ANDERSEN

Since this is the last week of the Liturgical Year, it is a good time to bring all things to a close and prepare to begin a new liturgical year next week with the season of Advent. The gospel for this last Sunday after Pentecost reminds us of the Second Coming of Christ and the Last Judgement. The Latin edition of the Liturgy of the Hours for this week bids all those praying to meditate each day this week on the sequence entitled Dies Irae, the Day of Wrath, as inspired by the prophet Sophonias aka. Zephaniah 1:14-16. This is a liturgical sequence sung in traditional funerals and other requiem Masses. The traditional Breviarium Romanum did not include the Dies Irae among its hymns, but in 1971, the Dies Irae was included in the Liturgy of the Hours to be sung during the 34th week of Ordinary Time and divided into three equal parts for the Office of Readings, Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer.

Office of Readings

Day of wrath! O day of mourning! See fulfilled the prophets' warning, Heaven and earth in ashes burning! O what fear man's bosom rendeth When from heav'n the judge descendeth, On whose sentence all dependeth! Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth; Through earth's sepulchers it ringeth; All before the throne it bringeth. Death is struck, and nature quaking, All creation is awaking, To its judge an answer making. Lo! the book, exactly worded, Wherein all hath been recorded: Thence shall judgment be awarded. When the judge his seat attaineth And each hidden deed arraigneth, Nothing unavenged remaineth.

Lauds (Morning Prayer)

What shall I, frail man, be pleading? Who for me be interceding, When the just are mercy needing? King of majesty tremendous, Who dost free salvation send us, Fount of pity, then befriend us! Think, good Jesus, my salvation Cost thy wondrous incarnation; Leave me not to reprobation! Faint and weary, thou hast sought me, On the cross of suffering bought me. Shall such grace be vainly brought me? Righteous judge! for sin's pollution Grant thy gift of absolution, Ere the day of retribution. Guilty, now I pour my moaning, All my shame with anguish owning; Spare, O God, thy suppliant groaning!

Vespers (Evening Prayer)

Thou the sinful woman savedst; Thou the dying thief forgavest; And to me a hope vouchsafest. Worthless are my prayers and sighing, Yet, good Lord, in grace complying, Rescue me from fires undying! With thy favored sheep O place me Nor among the goats abase me, But to thy right hand upraise me. While the wicked are confounded, Doomed to flames of woe unbounded, Call me with thy saints surrounded. Low I kneel, with heart submission: See, like ashes my contrition; Help me in my last condition. Ah! that day of tears and mourning! From the dust of earth returning, Man for judgment must prepare him; Spare, O God, in mercy spare him!

Would the Word have been made flesh even if the human race had not sinned? This is a good example of how Christian revelation presents new questions for which philosophy can provide resources, and how the Church allows for legitimate theological plurality. Ages high school and up. snacks provided. Free will offering taken up. Adoration and Confession in the church 5:30-6:45 pm. Philosophy Night begins at 7 pm in the Rectory Basement.
