WELCOME TO OUR NEW PARISHIONER

Mary E. Frame

FROM THE DESK OF FR ERIC ANDERSEN

This Monday, October 21st is the feast day of His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty, Bl. Karl (Charles) I, von Habsburg-Lorraine. Charles was born August 17, 1887. His parents were the Archduke Otto and Princess Maria Josephine of Saxony. Emperor Francis Joseph I was Charles' Great Uncle.

Charles was given an expressly Catholic education and the prayers of a group of persons accompanied him from childhood, since a stigmatic nun prophesied that he would undergo great suffering and attacks would be made against him. A deep devotion to the Holy Eucharist and to the Sacred Heart of Jesus began to grow in Charles. He turned to prayer before making any important decisions.

On the 21st of October, 1911, he married Princess Zita of Bourbon and Parma. The couple was blessed with eight children during the ten years of their happy and exemplary married life. Charles became heir to the throne of the Austro-Hungarian Empire on June 28, 1914, following the assassination of the Archduke Francis Ferdinand. World War I was underway and with the death of the Emperor Francis Joseph, on November 21, 1916, Charles became Emperor of Austria. On December 30th he was crowned apostolic King of Hungary.

Charles envisaged this office also as a way to follow Christ: in the love and care of the peoples entrusted to him, and in dedicating his life to them. He placed the most sacred duty of a king - a commitment to peace - at the center of his preoccupations during the course of the terrible war. He was the only one among political leaders to support Benedict XV's peace efforts.

As far as domestic politics are concerned, despite the extremely difficult times, he initiated wide and exemplary social legislation, inspired by Catholic social teaching. Thanks to his conduct, the transition to a new order at the end of the conflict was made possible without a civil war. He was however banished from his country.

The Pope feared the rise of communist power in central Europe, and expressed the wish that Charles re-establish the authority of his government in Hungary. But two attempts failed, since above all Charles wished to avoid the outbreak of a civil war. Charles was exiled to the island of Madeira. Since he considered his duty as a mandate from God, he could not abdicate his office.

Reduced to poverty, he lived with his family in a very humid house. He then fell fatally ill and accepted this as a sacrifice for the peace and unity of his peoples. Charles endured his suffering without complaining. He forgave all those who conspired against him and died April 1, 1922 with his eyes turned toward the Blessed Sacrament. On his deathbed he repeated the motto of his life: "I strive always in all things to understand as clearly as possible and follow the will of God, and this in the most perfect way".

PHILOSOPHY NIGHT: POLITICS AND PAPACY

Thursday, November 21st, 2019 at 7 pm.

Fr. Todd Molinari presents this month's talk on "The Politics of the Papacy". History has witnessed saints and scoundrels on the papal throne. A string of saintly popes in recent history has given rise to Ultramontanism and even papolatry. The history of the papacy weaves idealism, political cleverness, and even a struggle for temporal power. When St. Bernard of Clairvaux's former pupil was elected pope, Bernard warned Blessed Eugenius III, "You have been entrusted with stewardship over the world, not given possession of it. ...There is no poison more dangerous for you, no sword more deadly, than the passion to rule." Ages high school and up. No reading ahead is necessary. Adoration and Confession in the Church at 5:30 pm. Philosophy Night at 7 pm in the Rectory Basement. Snacks provided. Free will offering taken.
