A WORD FROM THE SUMMER SEMINARIAN:

In Sunday's Epistle, St. Paul teaches us that we ought to live according to the Spirit, complementing the parable Our Lord gives us, where he illustrates the disconnect between the wisdom of the world and the wisdom of the light, which is true wisdom. Why are we so meticulous when dealing in the matters of the world, yet so negligent in the matters of heaven? This is due to our fallen nature. We must constantly wage this noble battle to order ourselves toward God and away from earthly things, not because they are evil (though some are), but because they keep our gaze downward and impair our freedom to love God completely. It is a long and arduous battle, but have hope in Christ who has already won the battle, rely on Him as your strength, and be joyful, for St. Paul says we are "heirs with Christ."

A NOTE FROM LISA HEZMALHALCH

My Dear St. Stephen's Family,

As many of you know, a little over a month ago I moved from Portland to Menlo Park, California to take a job working at St Patrick's Seminary. My heart broke to leave you all, but I knew the Lord wanted me in California. Life here has been good, and I was beginning to settle in when the Lord decided to change my plans again and call me into Religious Life!

Oh how I wish I could be there to tell you this exciting news in person! I'd been discerning quietly for a couple years now but leaving all the details up to the Lord. Well, He finally let me know it was time! I've been invited to enter Postulancy with the Canons Regular of the Immaculate Conception in Santa Paula, California this August 15th on the Feast of the Assumption in order to help them found the Canonesses Regular of the Immaculate Conception!

Please pray for me as I begin this next adventure - this is a great challenge that the Lord has called me to and I will need all the prayers I can get! Pray also that the Lord would bring people along to help me pay off my student loan debt. The Canons are hopeful that the Lord will provide so they're sponsoring a GoFundMe to pay it off: <https://charity.gofundme.com/o/en/campaign/help-lisa-be-a-nun>
