

A LETTER FROM SEMINARIAN ERIK MORRIS

Friday, November 6, 2020

Dear St Stephen's Parish,

Thank you for your prayers. Seminary has been great, yet I look forward to coming home for Winter break.

Classes have been insightful, and I've particularly enjoyed learning about Epistemology, Phenomenology, Marian devotion, and even topics regarding secular reasons for God. It has been quite a blessing to dig into the rich intellectual history surrounding our faith.

As for our assigned ministry, it has been difficult interfacing at a distance. It will probably be that way for the remainder of the school-year. I pray for you often, with the hope that all of our sufferings would be put towards many redemptive works within the body of Christ.

ANNUAL SEMINARIAN APPEAL

St. Stephen's has given three seminarians to the Archdiocese of Portland in the last two years, and two other seminarians to other dioceses, plus two young ladies to religious life since 2017. Though we are a small parish with limited financial resources, the Lord has blessed us with an abundance of vocations in these past few years. Let us consider what we can give back to the Lord, especially to assist in the expense of educating these men to become priests. It costs the Archdiocese of Portland up to $50,000 annually for education and formation of each seminarian. Would you consider a gift of $250 or $500 to contribute towards the education of just one man? or triple that for the three men from St Stephen's currently studying for the Archdiocese of Portland? Please consider what you can render back to the Lord for all He has given to you. Commitment weekend Nov 15.

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS AND RELIGIOUS

Br. Eric Faris, Coulter McIntyre, Erik Morris, Zach Munoz, Neal Smith, Sr. Lisa Hezmalhalch, Sr. Abigail Theresa Irigoyen

Classes begin at 9:15 am after the 8am Mass and end at 10:15 am. The registration forms are available in the vestibule. INDULGENCES FOR THE HOLY SOULS

Holy Mother Church offers us two special indulgences this month:

1) A Visit to a Cemetery (Extended to the entire month of November)

An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. The indulgence is plenary each day from the 1st to the 8th of November; on other days of the year it is partial.

Prayer at the cemetery:

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace. Amen.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace, Amen.

Our Father & Apostles Creed for the intentions of the Holy Father

2) A Visit to a Church or Oratory on All Souls Day [November 2]

A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who on the day dedicated to the Commemoration of all the faithful departed piously visit a church, a public oratory or-----for those entitled to use it -----a semipublic oratory.

In visiting the church or oratory, it is required that one Our Father and the Creed be recited.

What is an Indulgence? (Catechism of the Catholic Church)

¶1471 "An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints." (Indulgentiarum doctrina)

"An indulgence is partial or plenary according as it removes either part or all of the temporal punishment due to sin." The faithful can gain indulgences for themselves or apply them to the dead.

Obtaining indulgence from God through the Church

1478. An indulgence is obtained through the Church who, by virtue of the power of binding and loosing granted her by Christ Jesus, intervenes in favor of individual Christians and opens for them the treasury of the merits of Christ and the saints to obtain from the Father of mercies the remission of the temporal punishments due for their sins. Thus the Church does not want simply to come to the aid of these Christians, but also to spur them to works of devotion, penance, and charity.⁹⁰

1479. Since the faithful departed now being purified are also members of the same communion of saints, one way we can help them is to obtain indulgences for them, so that the temporal punishments due for their sins may be remitted.

FROM THE DESK OF FR ERIC ANDERSEN

This coming Wednesday is the feast of St. Martin of Tours (Nov 11th) and it is historically a great day of feasting akin to Fat Tuesday because the following day begins the 40 Days before Christmas known as "St. Martin's Lent." The western Church does not start Advent until the last Sunday in November, wherein each Sunday of the four Sundays of Advent represents 10 days for a symbolic 40 day period. St. Martin's Lent represents an older tradition, still observed by many religious. During this time, one would begin abstinence and self denial. Even during Advent, there are many feast days and celebrations that interrupt the penitential character of the season. If you are looking to kickstart your Advent a little early, here is your chance. We will have our regular 12 Noon Latin Low Mass and a 7 pm Sung Latin Mass on the feast this Wednesday.

When we think about the way Lent used to be celebrated prior to the liturgical reforms after Vatican II, it was a time of real fasting for 40 days. Every day of Lent, other than Sundays, was a day of fasting and partial abstinence with full abstinence on Fridays. Advent in those days was like the way Lent is observed by most people today. During Advent, people gave up something, particularly sweets, awaiting the abundance of sweets that would cascade upon us at Christmas. Advent penance was light, while Lenten penance was pretty serious. This way of treating the two seasons makes a lot of sense to me, and bears great fruit in the spiritual life. With that in mind, you have just a few days to prepare and do make a point of enjoying St. Martin's feast day.

One of the greatest blessings of this past year has been the introduction of singing Lauds and Vespers nearly every day in the church. At one point last spring, before the shutdown, I had made a comment from the pulpit that if the three days of darkness happened, I would come into the church, expose the Blessed Sacrament, and chant the Divine Office for three days. Well, as I thought of it, I said to myself, "why don't you do that anyway?" When Covid hit and public Masses were suspended, it seemed like that was a great inspiration. I began to have Adoration more often and chant the Office. Once the Mass was opened up again, there was not as much interest among the faithful in attending Vespers and Lauds, but I have continued to do so, since it is my obligation to pray them anyway. Why not do so in the best way to glorify GOD!

PHILOSOPHY NIGHT TUESDAY NOV 24TH AT 7 PM

This month, Fr. Eric Andersen will discuss the book "Progress and Religion" published in 1929 by Christopher Dawson. The book is available through CUA Press, amazon.com, ABE books and more. "Dawson was writing in the period between the two great wars of the twentieth century, a time when some thought that the idea of progress had finally been discredited by the carnage and barbarism of the First World War. Progress and Religion was clearly intended to challenge the doctrine of progress, the rather naive but persistent belief that 'in every day and in every way the world grows better and better.'" (book jacket notes). No reading is necessary. Ages high school and up. 7 pm in Carmody Hall. Check the website later in the week for the sign up link or sign up at the parish office with Joseph Salazar.
