

DRESS CODE FOR THE CHURCH: A MESSAGE OF LOVE

Please dress with respect for the LORD and His Church. Formality is not necessary, but modesty is necessary. Dress for the occasion. Set a good example for others. Do not be a scandal to others. Men: dress like a gentleman and a man of God, rich or poor. Women: dress like a lady with the loveliness of the Blessed Virgin Mary as your guide. Your clothes need not be expensive or fancy, but clean, neat, feminine, respectful and modest. To help clarify, the following points are given as a helpful guide:

- No gym clothes, yoga clothes, revealing clothes or pajamas.
- No bare shoulders on men or women
- No cleavage, no bare chests. Ladies cover up. Men button up.
- No mini-skirts. Skirts should cover the knees while seated. Men should wear long pants.
- No anti-Christian clothing, logos, jewelry, make-up.
- Tattoos should be covered (ask about getting de-commissioned)
- Remove piercings of tongues, lips, cheeks, eyelids, noses, or enlarged ears, etc., before entering the church.
- No Cross-dressing.
- No hair color that is unnatural (green, orange, blue, pink, etc.)

If you have tattoos, piercings, etc., from a former way of life, do your best to cover them up, and be humbled. We love you. Do not despair. Every saint has a past and every sinner has a future. Receive this guidance humbly with love. It is humbly given with love.

PHILOSOPHY NIGHT: THE ERRORS OF NOMINALISM

Tuesday, September 6th at 7 pm. Carmody Hall.

"Exaggerated Realism holds that there are universal concepts in the mind and universal things in nature. ...Nominalism, on the contrary...denies the existence of abstract and universal concepts, and refuses to admit that the intellect has the power of engendering them. What are called general ideas are only names, mere verbal designations, serving as labels for a collection of things or a series of particular events. Hence the term Nominalism. Conceptualism admits the existence within us of abstract and universal concepts (whence its name), but it holds that we do not know whether or not the mental objects have any foundation outside our minds" (Catholic Encyclopedia). Fr. Eric Andersen presents this month's discussion. Ages high school and up. No reading ahead necessary. Snacks provided.

Our Religious Education classes take place between the 8am and the 10:30am Sunday Masses. We have classes for those in grade school and high school. These classes included Sacramental Preparation classes for First Communion and Confirmation. The Archbishop has recently lowered the age for Confirmation to the 7th grade, so we can now prepare the students in the 6th grade so that they can be confirmed at the beginning of the 7th grade. The Confirmation preparation classes are also for any others in higher grades who would like to be confirmed. CCD registration forms are available in the narthex. If you have any questions, contact Joseph Salazar in the parish office or email jsalazar@archdpdx.org
