FROM THE DESK OF FR ERIC ANDERSEN

“Rogation Days; Ascension Thursday; and the Pentecost Novena”

This coming Thursday is the Solemnity of the Ascension which marks the beginning of the Pentecost Novena: nine days of prayer made by the disciples who prayed for the coming of the Holy Spirit from the day the Lord departed until the day when the Holy Spirit descended upon them on Pentecost.

There is a historic Triduum of sorts that precedes the feast of the Ascension. On the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday before Ascension Thursday, the Church has historically observed three days of penance and mourning called Rogation days. We mourn during these days because our Blessed Lord has told us that He is going to depart. During these days, the clergy wear violet vestments, not to “signify that our Jesus has fled from us, but that the time for His departure is approaching” (Gueranger, The Liturgical Year Vol. 9., p. 134). These Rogation Days include a Procession either to bless the fields, or to “beat the bounds” of the parish, meaning to surround the boundaries of the parish. Venerable Prosper Gueranger tells us that “The procession for the Rogation days was preceded by the faithful receiving the ashes upon their heads, as now at the beginning of Lent; they were then sprinkled with holy water, and the procession began. It was made up of the clergy and people of several smaller parishes, who were headed by the cross of the principle church, which conducted the whole ceremony. All walked bare-foot, singing the litany, psalms, and antiphons, until they reached the church appointed for the station, where the holy sacrifice was offered” (p. 132)

“We learn from St. Caesarius of Arles (+ AD 542), that each day’s procession lasted six hours; and that when the clergy became tired, the women took up the chanting” (p. 132). We also learn that “the holy emperor...Charlemagne... used to join the processions of these three days, and walk bare-footed from his palace to the station church. We find St. Elizabeth of Hungary, in the thirteenth century, setting the like example: during the Rogation days, she used to mingle with the poorest women of the place, and walk bare-footed, wearing a dress of coarse stuff” (132). These three days were accompanied by fasting and abstinence. This discipline is no longer required, but one would certainly benefit from observing the former discipline of fasting and partial abstinence which would have been previously required this Wednesday, the Vigil of the Ascension.

Please join us this week for this triduum of Masses, prayers, and a Rogation Procession in preparation for Ascension Thursday. Low Latin Masses will be celebrated Monday morning at 9 am; Tuesday morning at 7 am and Noon; the Vigil of the Ascension on Wednesday at 7 am and Wednesday evening a Rogation Procession beginning at 6:45 pm followed by Low Mass. Masses on Ascension Thursday will be at 7 pm (Low Mass) and 7 pm (Sung Latin Mass).

The Discipline of 1962 obliged fasting and partial abstinence (meat at only one meal) this coming Wednesday, May 29th for the Vigil of the Ascension. The 6th century discipline called for fasting and full abstinence on all three days. No obligation for fasting or abstinence binds the faithful today. On that Thursday, the Lord ascended toward the East. The angel told the disciples that the Lord would return in the very same way. Therefore, the Church looks to the East now as she awaits the second coming of her Lord on the altar in the Eucharist. His second coming is daily manifested as He rises in the East at the Elevation of the Host and Chalice at Mass in anticipation of His glorious return at the end of time. Meanwhile, in these nine days, we, the faithful, pray the Novena to the Holy Spirit, uniting our prayer to that of the apostles, the other disciples, and the Blessed Virgin Mary in that very first novena. Please find a copy of the Pentecost Novena in the bulletin and in the narthex of the church.

On First Saturdays, we pray an Act of Reparation for First Saturdays after Mass followed by the Rosary during Confessions. This devotion "consists in going to Confession, receiving Communion, reciting five decades of the Rosary and meditating for a quarter of an hour on the mysteries of the Rosary on the first Saturday. Confession may be made during the eight days preceding or following the first Saturday of each month, provided that Holy Communion be received in the state of grace. Should one forget to form the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, it may be formed at the next Confession, the occasion to go to confession being taken at the first opportunity." Please join us this month after morning mass this Saturday, June 1st.

CALLING ALL ARTISTS

The third annual St. Stephen Festival Arts Exhibition is approaching this summer! Artists are encouraged to submit work inspired by the Medieval time period. As Christian visual symbolism infused Middle Age society, the reality of the supernatural was lived and accessible to all through art and architecture. This show entitled, Infused: A Light in the Dark adopts the Medieval motivation of artists to saturate culture with a sense of the divine; how can art stand out as a beacon of Christian truth in the world today?

All entries of visual arts media and creative writing are encouraged to apply for a curated age-appropriate exhibition and live reading. Please see the parish website Current Events section for online submission form or visit this link:https://goo.gl/forms/21xIVRG2uBqF4BoD3.

Deadline for entries is Monday, July 1st.

Email amanda.quiruz@gmail.com for questions.

COURAGE & ENCOURAGE CONFERENCE

“Courageous Friendship”. July 18-21, 2019. University of St. Mary of the Lake. Mundelein, IL. The Courage-EnCourage apostolate is a spiritual community – an international family of friends who support one another, through prayer and fellowship, in living the Church's teachings. This year, our annual gathering will focus on the theme of friendship and examine how Christ-centered friendships renew our spirits and inspire us to live in hope. A true Catholic community, Courage is made up of men and women of all ages, ethnicities, and backgrounds, drawn together by our shared love of Jesus Christ, the sacraments, and the full teachings of the Church, especially as they pertain to same-sex attraction. Our hope in Christ inspires us to strive for interior chastity — chastity of the heart — as we grow in discipleship, with the support, love, and prayers of brothers and sisters who are companions on this journey. May this year's conference be a time to strengthen and renew the bonds of courageous friendship as we come together once again in prayer and fellowship, for mutual edification and personal reflection. Together, our community will continue to pray for ever-deepening union with our Lord Jesus Christ in whom is our hope, joy, and salvation. Register online: <https://couragerc.org/annualconference2019/>

SAVE THE DATE: ST. STEPHEN MEDIEVAL FESTIVAL

This year our festival will be on Sunday, August 4th, since this is the weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Finding of the Relics of St. Stephen (August 3rd). We will have a Medieval theme this year, as we look to help the Portland area to see the joy and enthusiasm that Catholicism brought to Medieval festivals for a thousand years as villages celebrated the feasts of the Church. We are currently coordinating our volunteers in the various areas of the festival.

To volunteer or for more information, please contact Joseph Salazar in the parish office.
