FROM THE DESK OF FR ERIC ANDERSEN

On this Holy Trinity Sunday, the best thing I can do is ask you to recite and proclaim the Athanasian Creed, recited once a year in the Office of Prime in the 1962 Roman Breviary: Whoever wishes to be saved must, before all else, hold the Catholic Faith: for unless each one maintains it whole and inviolate, he will certainly perish in eternity:

This, then, is the Catholic faith: We worship one God in the Trinity and the Trinity in unity, without confusing the Persons or separating the substance; for indeed the Person of the Father is one, the Person of the Son another, the Person of the Holy Spirit another; but the divinity of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit is one, their glory equal, and their majesty coeternal.

As the Father is, so is the Son, and so is the Holy Spirit; uncreated the Father, uncreated the Son, uncreated the Holy Spirit; infinite the Father, infinite the Son, infinite the Holy Spirit; eternal the Father, eternal the Son, eternal the Holy Spirit; and yet they are not three eternal beings, but one eternal; just as they are not three uncreated beings or three infinite beings, but one uncreated being. In like manner, omnipotent is the Father, omnipotent the Son, omnipotent the Holy Spirit; and yet they are not three omnipotent beings, but one omnipotent being. Therefore, the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God; and yet there are not three Gods but one God. In the same way, the Father is Lord, the Son is Lord, the Holy Spirit is Lord; yet there are not three Lords, but there is one Lord; for just as we are compelled by Christian truth to confess each Person individually as God and Lord, just so the Catholic religion forbids us to say that there are three Gods or three Lords.

The Father was not made by anyone; nor was he created or begotten; the Son is from the Father alone, neither made nor created but generated; the Holy Spirit is from the Father and the Son, neither made nor created nor generated, but proceeding. Therefore, there is one Father, not three Fathers; one Son, not three Sons; one Holy Spirit, not three Holy Spirits. And in the Trinity, there is nothing before or after, nothing greater or lesser, but all three Persons are coequal and coeternal with each other. And so, in all things, as was said already above, both the unity in the Trinity and the Trinity in the unity must be worshipped. Let anyone therefore, who wishes to be saved think of the Trinity in this manner.

But it is necessary for eternal salvation also to believe faithfully in the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ. The correct faith, therefore, is that we believe and confess that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is both God equally and man; he is God generated from the substance of the Father before all ages; and he is man born from the substance of a mother in time; perfect God and perfect man, subsisting with a rational soul and human flesh; equal to the Father according to divinity, less than the Father according to humanity; and while he is both God and man, nevertheless, there is but one Christ, not two; not one, however, by a transformation of the divinity into flesh, but by the assumption of the humanity into God; he is entirely one, not by a confusion of substance, but by the unity of person. For just as one man is a rational soul and flesh, just so the one Christ is God and man. He suffered for our salvation, descended into hell, and on the third day rose again from the dead, ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father, from whence he shall come to judge the living and the dead. At his coming, all men are to rise again with their bodies, and they will give an account of their own deeds; and those who have done good will go on to eternal life, but those who have done evil will go into eternal fire.

This is the Catholic faith: unless each one has believed it faithfully and firmly, he will not be saved. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

We are currently coordinating our volunteers in the various areas of the festival. To volunteer or for more information, please contact Joseph Salazar in the parish office.

CALLING ALL ARTISTS

The third annual St. Stephen Festival Arts Exhibition is approaching this summer! Artists are encouraged to submit work inspired by the Medieval time period. As Christian visual symbolism infused Middle Age society, the reality of the supernatural was lived and accessible to all through art and architecture. This show entitled, Infused: A Light in the Dark adopts the Medieval motivation of artists to saturate culture with a sense of the divine; how can art stand out as a beacon of Christian truth in the world today?

All entries of visual arts media and creative writing are encouraged to apply for a curated age-appropriate exhibition and live reading. Please see the parish website Current Events section for online submission form or visit this link: <https://goo.gl/forms/21xIVRG2uBqF4BoD3>.

Deadline for entries is Monday, July 1st.

Email amanda.quiroz@gmail.com for questions.

SENDING OFF SEMINARIAN MIKE ORTIZ

After having spent about a year in this wonderful Parish singing in the choir and serving occasionally at the altar, I'll be returning to California this month to continue studying for the Priesthood. I've found St. Stephen's to be a special Parish, and I'm not surprised that several vocations to the priesthood and religious life are being fostered here, for this is what happens when young men and women are surrounded by mutually supportive and faith-filled Catholics like you, who in various ways support a reverent, faithful celebration of the Holy Mass. It's been a pleasure to have lent my voice to these beautiful liturgies in worship of Our Lord. I want to particularly thank Coulter McIntyre, Shawn Natola, Brian Wolf, and our pastor Fr. Andersen for not only teaching me (from scratch!) how to serve the Low Mass, but for teaching me so much about the deep theological significance behind all we do in service at the altar. Thanks to all for your welcoming smiles and support. Let's all continue to cling to God and love one another.

-Michael Ortiz
