

Devotional Prayers to St. Anthony of Padua

Prayer at the end of the Novena

O Blessed St. Anthony, my faithful intercessor, I have now, through the grace of God and thy assistance, finished the pious exercises in thy honor. I had, indeed, the will and desire to do all in my power for thy greater honor and glory, but thou knowest my weakness and misery and want of devotion; wherefore, I beseech thee to make amends for all my failings, and to offer thy merits and good works for me, that I may find grace and hearing with God. Obtain for me, through thy merits, the blessings of a virtuous life, a true knowledge of my God and of myself, a perfect mortification of my senses, and a complete triumph over all temptations. I place myself under thy special protection; assist me to follow thy example in life and come to my aid in death; in that dread moment let me experience the might of thy help. Amen.

Key of Heaven. 1947

11. St. Anthony, protected by Mary, avert the dangers which threaten our body and our soul.

We beseech Thee, Lord, that the devoted and continual prayers of Thy illustrious Confessor, blessed Anthony, may assist Thy people; that by Thy grace his prayers may make us worthy now, and bring us to eternal happiness in the future.

O most special advocate, St. Anthony, as thou dost now embrace the Infant Jesus so sweetly, and commend the poor languid soul to Him, grant that I may keep my soul clean and unspotted from every contagion of sin, that it may be worthy to be restored to His love and most loving embrace. Through the same Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Responsorium de S. Antonio: Si quaeris miracula composed by St. Bonaventure

*If then you ask for miracles;
Death, error, all calamities,
The leprosy and demons fly
And health succeeds infirmities.*

*Repeat: The sea obey, the fetters break,
And lifeless limbs you restore,
While treasures lost are found again
When young or old your aid implore.*

*All dangers vanish at your prayer,
And greatest need does quickly flee,
Let Paduans say – These are of thee.*

Repeat: The sea obeys...

*To the Father, Son, may glory be,
And Holy Spirit eternally.*

Repeat: The sea obeys...

V. Ora pro nobis, beâte Antóni

R. Ut digni efficiámur promissionibus Christi.

[V. Pray for us, Blessed St. Anthony.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.]

Let us pray

O God, may the devotion to Blessed St. Anthony, your Confessor, be a source of joy to your Church, that she may be always fortified with spiritual assistance and deserve to enjoy eternal rewards. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.
